Predict 30 Per Cent Hike in County Tax Rate

City's Protest Against Rate Raise on File

City Manager Rink Sends Statements To State Commission

Palm Springs city officials acted this week to protest the interim rate increase asked by the California Water and Telephone company when City Manager Russell Rink filed statements with the state public utilities commission as authorized by city council.

Copies of the council resolution protesting the increase were attached to the statement which was prepared by Rink and City Attorney Roy Colegate.

THE STATEMENT sent the utilities commission listed the present rates charge under an interim increase granted last year and compared them with new rates applied for by the company.

The chart showed that under the application private business lines would go from $5.50 to $7.00, an increase of 27.3 per cent; 2-party business lines from $4.75 to $6.50, a 36.8 per cent increase and 4-party business lines from $4.50 to $6, a 33.3 per cent gain.

RESIDENCE SERVICE private lines would be increased 25 per cent; 2-party lines, 23 per cent and 4-party lines, 9 per cent, the manager pointed out.

"When viewed from a percentage standpoint, the increase proposed for the Palm Springs area can scarcely be labeled moderate and may well elevate the rate structure to a point of diminishing returns," the statement set forth.

The protest filed by the city under a resolution adopted by council June 8, also argues that the telephone company's interim rate increase is based on the wrong premise, that of capital investment rather than cost of service.

Would Ban Motorbike From Hiking Trails

Supervisors were requested this week to adopt an ordinance prohibiting the possession of fire-arms and the riding of motorbikes on hiking trails. The request was made by the state division of parks and beaches. Supervisors took it under study.

The will to labor, that's the thing. It's good to be alive. But I hate to hear those hammers ring When it's only half past five.

Conversely, or to put it simply, I hate to hear them ring half past ten at night, too. But this is the time building is booming apace and you can hardly blame the workmen for wanting to pound those nails and whine that saw when it's cool. . . . And you can't blame other people for wanting to sleep a bit. . . . Must work on an invention for a muffler for hammers and saws. . . . Maybe padded hammers might do.

MOST PEOPLE like that idea of no parking meters along side streets during the summer. . . . Have heard only one complaint. . . . That from the gentleman who protested that the city was using paper sacks which are too tough to tear. . . . He couldn't get his nickel in so parked over on the reservation. . . . And speaking of meters, the National Highway Users conference which is dedicated to fighting the use of motorist money for any but motoring needs, came up with the suggestion last week that the huge take from parking meters be used solely to develop parking facilities. . . . That sounds like a good idea. . . . Most of the motorists' nickels and dimes now go into general funds.

FROM NORTH HOLLYWOOD comes an appeal. . . . The woman who wrote The Desert Sun dated June 2. . . . NO DOUBTING THOMAS—John Charles Thomas, famous operatic star, and Mrs. Thomas relax in the sun at Holiday Villa. The singer came here in May and will stay through June. He doesn't doubt the statement that late Spring is best in Palm Springs. (Desert Sun Photo.)

JOHN CHARLES THOMAS FINDS MAY, JUNE BEST

Stay through May? That's not enough. He's staying through June, too, and liking it.

One of the strongest advocates for the late Spring in Palm Springs now is John Charles Thomas, famous operatic star, a guest at John and Jane Porter's Holiday Villa at 1560 Calle Palo Fierro.

WITH HIS WIFE, Dorothy, he came to Palm Springs in May intending to give that month, long heralded as the best of the year in the Village, a test. He found it so good that he is staying on through June and when his art does call him away, he goes and comes by airplane to shorten the stay away from Palm Springs.

In between enjoying the late spring sunshine around the pool at the Inn, he has been playing some golf but most of the time has been spent around the hotel pool.

THIS PALM SPRINGS May and June weather is great," he said. "The days are good for lazing around and the cool nights really delightful. It's the best time of the year on the desert." The other night he staged a surprise birthday party for Mrs. Thomas, preparing the dinner entirely himself and serving it to a gay party of guests who came from the coast and other points for the surprise.

RECORD AUDIENCE FOR CITY COUNCIL NEXT WEEK

City council is expected to act on several controversial matters next Wednesday night at council chambers, McCallum way, before one of the largest audiences in many years.

Action on award of the bid for 230 permanent stalls at the Polo Grounds and hearing on the proposed budget for 1950-51 are the main items up for consideration.

AT ITS MEETING two weeks ago council opened bids for the second time on the stalls bids with Ray Dill of Banning submitting the lowest bid—$28,000—

It will be a big party according to Owen B. Coffman post, American Legion members as committee members speeded plans for the Bous and Beaus party slated for June 24, a week from tomorrow.

The new patio at World Wars Memorial hall will be the scene of the event and there will be all sorts of amusements plus dancing and food.

Bill Leonosio Now Deputy Game Warden

If you're planning on doing any hunting for game that is out-of-season which everybody knows is illegal, don't mention your idea in front of Bill Leonosio, Village fire chief. Leonosio has a gold five-pointed badge in his pocket, which indicates that he is and has been for approximately two weeks, a California state deputy game warden.

Hospital Told To Move Out By Mid-July

Sudden Notice May Leave City Without Hospital Services

Palm Springs may be without a hospital within the next thirty to sixty days, if an order to vacate the building now occupied by the Palm Springs Community Hospital, received through the mails yesterday, is carried out.

The letter containing the notice to vacate the premises by July 20, received by Florian Boyd, member of the board of directors of the Palm Springs Community Hospital association, stated that sale of the El Mirador hotel July 20 necessitates the removal notice despite the government's acknowledged statement obtained by Attorney Roy Colegate that negotiations for the sale of the property are still incomplete.

BELIEVING PERHAPS that final transfer of former El Mirador hotel, a building of which is occupied by the hospital, had been made to the highest bidder, Colegate, attorney for the Desert Hospital District telephoned George Wilson government real estate officer only to learn that no definite date for complete consummation of the sale has been set.

"As a matter of fact," Colegate reported, "Mr. Wilson told me that final arrangements for the down payment by high bidders Lloyd W. Gardner and Irwin Frank have been extended for a 'reasonable length of time.'"

"In view of that situation," said Colegate, "I can't see why R. G. Deede, director of property management and disposal for General Services Administration is in such a hurry to evict the Palm Springs Community Hospital?"

IT WAS ALSO learned, Colegate said, that two men claiming to represent the highest bidders for the property were, in Palm Springs to inspect the El Mirador. One of these men identified himself as L. A. Konkl, president of the Atlantic Investment Co., Washington, D. C. The two men spent two hours in Palm Springs.

John Arthur Connors, president of the Palm Springs Community hospital was planning to call a meeting of the board of directors to discuss the letter received from Deede.

Palm Springs Day June 25

First annual Palm Springs Day at Idyllwild is scheduled for June 25 at 5 p.m.

Following the concert scheduled in the bowl that day when Josef Maris and his wife, Miranda, will appear in songs, there will be a barbecue and entertainment on the picnic grounds served by the Idyllwild Inn.

A caravan of cars will leave Palm Springs around 3 p.m. for the event.

Chamber Directors To Meet Wednesday

June meeting of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce board of directors will be held next Wednesday at 10 a.m. William Dunkerly, manager, announced yesterday.

The meeting will be held in the Chamber of Commerce conference room.

NEWLY ORGANIZED TAXPAYERS GROUP BELIEVES RINK MUCH TOO OPTIMISTIC

(Band together in a newly organized Palm Springs Taxpayers association, a group of Village property owners is planning a vigorous battle to keep costs down here, Mrs. Perry Johnson was designated as spokesman to set forth their views on current city expenditures in the following article—EDITOR'S NOTE.)

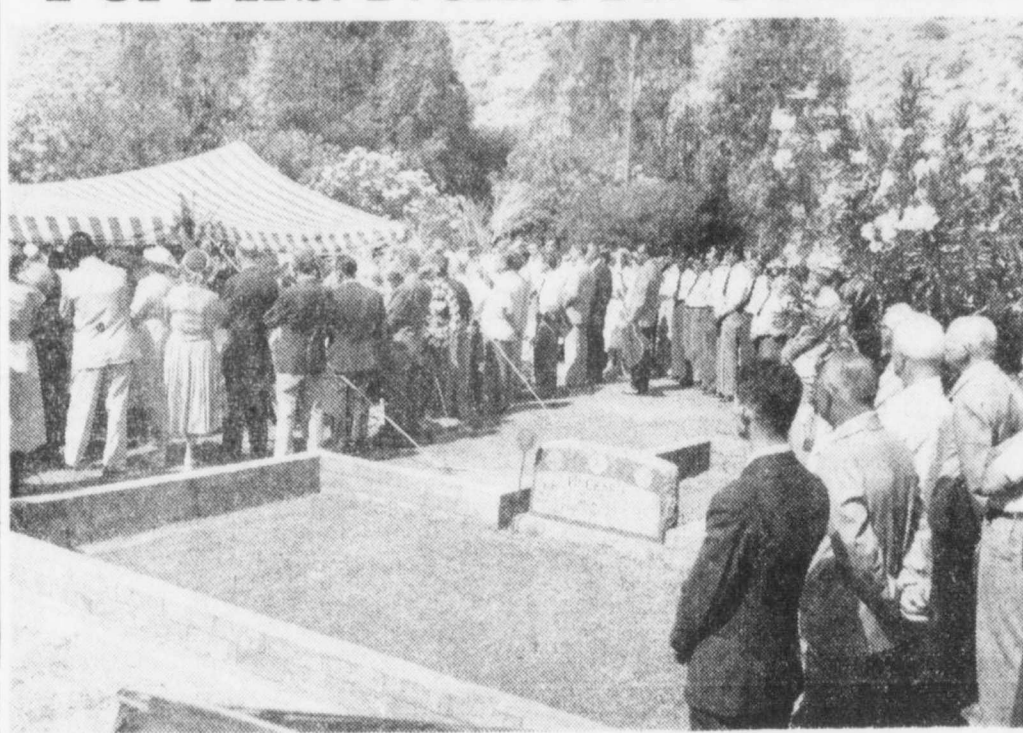

By MRS. PERRY JOHNSON
Where's the money coming from?
Publisher Oliver Jaynes said about taxes in his June 9th editorial in The Desert Sun. "When will the people wake up? When will they demand more economy in government from the Truman Administration right down to the smallest town?"
On page four of the same issue was an article by Horace

Pendery telling about the apathy of the taxpayers in attending city council meetings when large sums of our tax money are being spent.

ON THE FRONT PAGE of that very issue were two big articles to tell us to sleep. One of these articles was to the effect that the contract for the proposed 230 horse stalls at the Polo Grounds, HAD been awarded at the June 7th council meeting. This report would sidetrack the persons who were fighting this expenditure as an unwise extravagance. Actually this contract will not be awarded until the June 21 council meeting, or even later.

The other sleeping pill came in the form of the article by Mr. Rink, our city manager, on his "belief" that a "slight" cut in

RETIREMENT PLAN FOR CITY WORKERS FAVORED

Civil service and a retirement plan for city employees, the latter project actually surveyed as to cost by the city approximately two years ago, have reached a point where a decision is awaited.

A cross-section of Village opinion sought by The Desert Sun during the last three weeks indicates that both civil service and the retirement plan are in high favor.

IT WAS POINTED out that employees of cities are not entitled to federal and state social security protection, meager as it is considered to be, although there is a bill pending in Congress to include civil employees. Strange as it may seem, most of the city employees contacted during The Desert Sun survey insisted they are more interested in some form of civil service than in distant pension promises.

IN ESSENCE they declared: "What we want most is security in our jobs from day to day. We are in constant fear that a change in city administration may find us discharged from our positions in favor of some favored person promised a job."

It is believed that a majority of City Council is in favor of some retirement plan for city employees even if civil employees are included in the social security setup.

COUNCILMEN Gordon Feekings, Jerry Nathanson and Florian Boyd expressed a keen interest in some definite move to embrace employees in the California State Retirement System open to city employees.

Feekings and Nathanson declared that they were definitely in favor of civil service as well. Other members of the city council refused to be quoted but declared off-the-record, that they favored one or both plans but were waiting for some concrete plan to be submitted for study.

First Lady of Village Laid To Last Rest

"The lights are dimmed, and life's ebb runs low. I have tried with courage to live, To work and to love and always to strive My best to the world to give.

And now at last at the end of the day, As I lay me down to rest, May I hear the voice of the Master say 'All's well, you have done your best.' Aloha, dear One."

The above poem attached to the last will and testament of Mrs. Nellie (Mother) Coffman read by Rev. B. B. Weatheral during simple graveside services held at the Palm Springs cemetery Tuesday at 10 a. m. brought unrestrained tears to many of the more than 500 who came to mourn the passing of Mrs. Coffman.

DR. RON O. ADAMS who delivered an oration under the canopy shielding the bier and members of the family from the hot desert sun, heard him say that "in the more than a third of a century that I've known

The PUBLISHER'S Corner

By BILLY WRIGHT ("Publisher for a Day")

One of the most important and best organized groups in Palm Springs is the Realty Board. This organization, which has done much for the betterment of the community, has one of its most active members, Billy Wright, as president for the next 12 months. He is a real optimist and has a wonderful vision of our Village of Tomorrow.—O.B.J.)

A recent issue of the "Publisher's Corner" was devoted to a convention which will be held in Palm Springs this October—the California State Horsemen's Assn. Since conventions are so vital to Palm Springs and offer so many possibilities in our efforts to extend the season from October 1st to at least June 1st of each year, the "Publisher's Corner" today will deal with a convention that was held in Palm Springs April 20-23rd, Rotary International, District 162.

This was the first time a Rotary convention had ever been held in Palm Springs. It developed that it was the most successful, with the largest attendance, of any Rotary District 162 convention ever held. There was a total registration of 1476 persons, excluding children, compared with 854—the largest previous attendance which occurred at Long Beach in 1949, and 811 at Coronado in 1948.

The success of this convention was due to many factors: the time and effort put forth by the Convention Bureau of the Chamber of Commerce in planning and arranging a complete program; the days and weeks of hard work put in by officers and members of the local Rotary Club; and the support and cooperation received from city officials and the community as a whole. I know how important all these factors were for I served as General Chairman of the Housing Committee, and it was my duty to arrange housing for the hundreds of delegates and their wives. This was one of some sixteen active committees.

This convention was attended by persons from virtually all of Southern California, most of whom had never before visited Palm Springs, and by Rotary representatives from many parts of the entire United States. A large percentage of those attending the convention will return to Palm Springs as guests for many years to come, we

Census Count Ends Tonight In Local Area

If your name is not on the 1950 census list, chances are you will not be counted. For today is the last day.

The regional census office at Riverside is closing tonight, two weeks earlier than had been anticipated.

Ray Adkinson, census supervisor for the 22nd congressional district, announced Wednesday that he had orders to shut up shop June 16. Originally it had been announced by Frank Timmons, assistant supervisor for the county, that he believed the office would be closed for good on June 30.

ADKINSON SAID the staff had already been reduced considerably as the count neared its close and that he expects Friday will wind it up. The June 30 closing day was shoved up, he said, because the district had just about been fully covered.

City Manager Russell Rink, who offered the services of an operator at the city hall switchboard to take information from people who believed they had been missed, this week sent in two dozen forms furnished him by The Desert Sun. These were names of people who said they had not been counted.

OTHERS USED the census forms printed in The Desert Sun from time to time and in this manner, almost a half hundred villagers who said they had been missed, got their names in under the deadline.

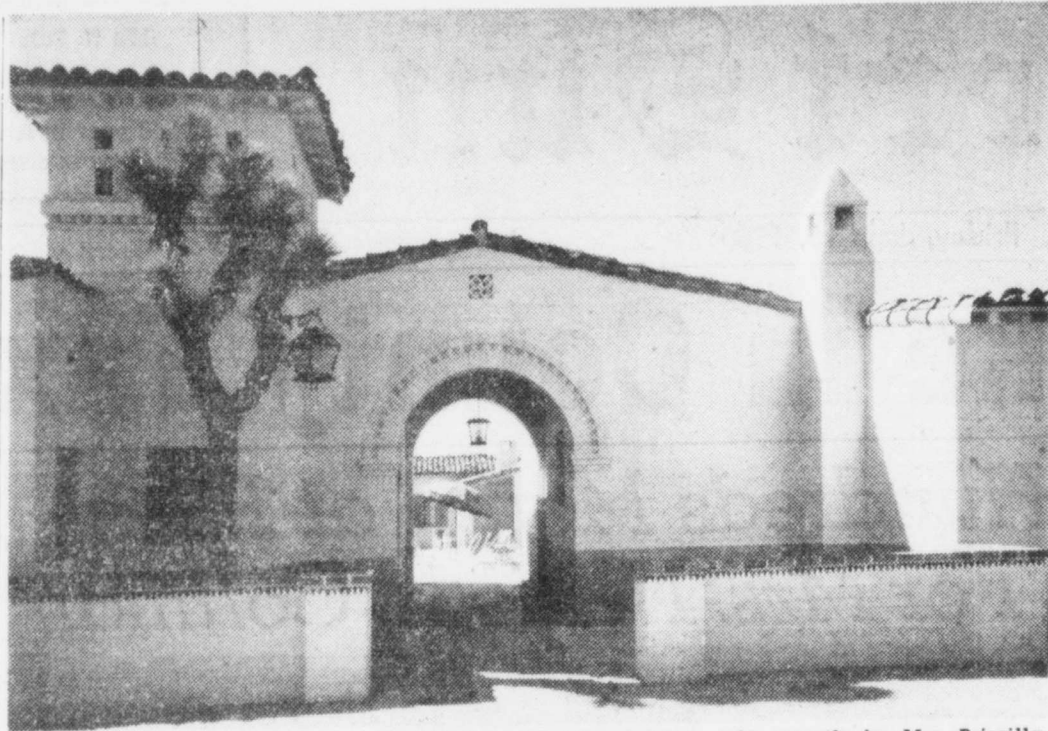

A full count was important, Rink said, as state allocation of funds to the city are based on population figures and each person is worth $5.46 to the city.

SIX VILLAGE AREA BOY SCOUTS ALL READY FOR NATIONAL JAMBOREE TRIP

Six boys from the Palm Springs area and one leader will be among 28 Riverside county Boy Scouts and five leaders who will leave Colton a week from Friday for Valley Forge, Pa., where the National Jamboree of Boy Scouts of America will be held June 30 to July 6.

It is expected 47,000 Scouts from all over the nation will be there to join in celebrating the 40th anniversary of Scouting in America.

LOCAL BOYS who will make the trip are Ed Griffing, Troop 39 and Gene K. Moreno, Troop 36, both of Palm Springs; Clayton Lampman and Gary Lampman, Troop 59, Desert Hot Springs; Gene Patrick and Gene Thompson, Troop 81, Cathedral City. Local service clubs and private individuals are financing their trip. Scott Thompson, Scoutmaster of Cathedral City will make the jaunt as one of the leaders.

Final plans for the trip were made at a practice camp held last Friday and Saturday at Camp Evans where the Scouts engaged in camping activities, cooking, and Scout programs.

The train bearing the Riverside county Scouts and Scouts from other California districts will stop for side tours on the trip to and from the Jamboree.

George Washington and his Continental Army of 10,000 who camped at Valley Forge from December 19, 1777 to June 19, 1778 will mark the opening day of the Jamboree. The ceremony will close with Scouts carrying torches across the grounds to light their sectional campfires.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN will go to Valley Forge to open the Jamboree. The 47,000 Scouts will come from all parts of the United States and its territories including 570 Scouts from other nations. The camp, said to be one of the largest gatherings of Scouts ever held in the western hemisphere, will occupy 625 of the 2033 acres of Valley Forge park.

Police on Watch For Man Fleeing Patton Asylum

Local police were alerted this week to watch for Perry Bowen, 49, inmate of Patton state hospital for the insane, who escaped Thursday afternoon.

Sheriff Jim Stocker, of San Bernardino county, informed police here to be on the lookout for Bowen, described as dangerous and believed making his way to Palm Springs where he has relatives.

Sheriff Stocker advised that caution should be used in accosting Bowen who was described as five feet, five inches tall, grey haired, blue eyed and wearing institutional clothes.

both retirement and civil service for city employees.

PROPERTY OWNERS who expressed favor of both plans were John Arthur Connors, Marvin Fritz, Frank Partridge, and many others who made "off-the-cuff" statements in favor of both plans.

James Ritchie, California state enforcement officer and an authority on civil service in the Village last week, declared that cities such as Palm Springs without some form of civil service "act as a training school for other communities that offer civil service to their employees."

"In other words," declared Ritchie, "the turn-over in employees in cities that do not have a form of civil service is exceptionally great."

HE SAID civil service and a retirement plan would attract a high caliber of applicants for jobs in this city.

Determined also as a result of The Sun survey is that the only way civil service and/or the retirement plan could be put into force here would be by a vote of the people.

CITY MANAGER RINK said that the cost to the city of the retirement plan would cost approximately $30,000 per year or a hike of about 11 cents per $100 in taxes. Half of the cost of the plan would be paid by the city

Nellie N. Coffman Fund Established By Soroptimists

The Soroptimist Club of Palm Springs held their regular luncheon meeting Tuesday, June 13. The following resolution was passed:

"That a yearly award, to further the education of a deserving Palm Springs girl be granted. That this award be known as the 'Nellie N. Coffman Award of the Soroptimist Club of Palm Springs,' in tribute to our departed dearly beloved and honored member, Mrs. Nellie Coffman, who during her life-time offered so much assistance to the deserving."

Hellzapoppin' But All in Fun At Palm Desert

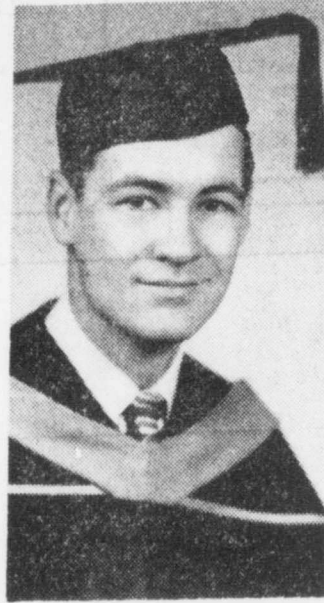

HELLZAPOPPIN' at the Shadow Mountain Club on Monday, June 26, but all for a good cause—building fund of the Palm Desert Fire Department.

From all reports, this is to be no small affair, but is being staged for the entire valley. Ole Olsen of the "Hellzapoppin'" show will act as Fun Director. Professional entertainment including vaudeville, water follies, Hollywood Stars, and so on is being arranged by co-chairmen Cliff Henderson (of Shadow Mountain Club), Ole Olsen (Olsen and Johnson stage and television fame), and Don Cameron (local character).

Chi Chi's Irwin Schuman and dance director Roy Randolph have shown their enthusiasm by offering their show for the event.

The three co-chairmen are presently in Los Angeles arranging for acts which will make Coachella Valley better known as "Fun Valley."

and the other half by the employees. Under the California state plan, retirement for police and firemen would take place at the end of 20 years of service or at an age of 55; other employees would retire at 65 years of age. The pay on retirement would be half of each employee's salary.

Tram Report Of Forester Ready Soon

Recommendations of P. A. Thompson, regional forester, on the application of Mt. San Jacinto Winter Park Authority for a right-of-way across a small section of forest land for the Tramway will be made within ten days, it was announced this week.

Earl Coffman, chairman for the Authority was informed, however, that final decision may not be made until late this summer.

THOMPSON, who presided at a two-day hearing on the application in Riverside, said last week end that his recommendations would be made in two weeks.

But after that recommendation is made, he said, it may be another 60 days before the final decision is handed down. Thompson said the recommendation first goes to the chief of the forestry service and then to the secretary of agriculture. Then final decision on the right-of-way application will be handed down by the secretary of the interior.

THOMPSON SAID he had received thousands of letters for and against the tramway and these all had to be studied and analyzed.

A financial report on the feasibility of the project is also under study. The recommendation will be based on these documents and on a sitting of testimony taken at Riverside.

Thompson declined to comment to newsmen on the trend of his prospective recommendation.

Two Concerts Start Season at Idyllwild Bowl

Ushering in the first summer session of the Idyllwild School of Music and the Arts will be two outstanding concerts on Saturday night, June 24 and Sunday afternoon, June 25.

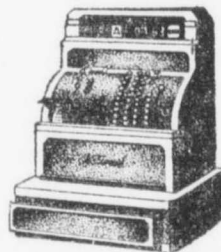

In the Bowman Arts Center patio theater on Saturday night, the Students association of Indian at the University of Southern California will present an Indian Spring Festival, featuring the native songs and dances of their country. The unique patio theater is built around a forty-by-sixty foot patio in the center of which is a large fire-well for camp fires at night.

Joseph Marais and Miranda, internationally known folk singers, specializing in the songs of the South African Veld, will present the first twilight concert in the Atwater Kent Bowl on Sunday afternoon, June 25th. The Atwater Kent Bowl is a natural amphitheater, seating 5,000 persons. Each Sunday afternoon at twilight, there will be a concert in the Bowl, as there will be each Saturday night in the Arts Center Patio Theater. Other artists to appear throughout the summer include the Long Beach Symphony Orchestra, Robert Besta conductor; the California Junior Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Peter Merembiun; and the University of Southern California Orchestra, directed by Ralph Rush; the University Band under the direction of Clarence Sawhill; and the University Choir directed by Charles C. Hirt. All of the concerts held in the Bowl and the Bowman Arts Center Patio Theater will be open to the public, with a small admission charge.

Suspect Changes Plea in Hearing On Check Charge

Charles Pope who, with his partner, Raymond Baker, was accused of cashing $581 in stolen payroll checks in the Village early this year, pleaded guilty to the charge at his preliminary hearing in Riverside, according to Sgt. Durman Ordway of the Palm Springs police department.

Pope had plead not guilty and asked for a jury trial despite the fact that his partner Baker admitted his part in passing the worthless checks here and in Cathedral City. Sentenced to San Quentin, Baker was held in the Riverside county jail pending Pope's trial at which he was scheduled to testify, according to Sgt. Ordway.

After passing the stolen payroll checks here in a matter of a few hours, both Pope and Baker were arrested by the California highway patrol officers after an alert bartender, who had cashed one of the checks, became suspicious and telephoned a description of the pair to police.

Frank Morro, 61, just out of city jail two days after having been arrested on a drunk charge, was in again and scheduled to face Judge E. E. Theriault. All lectures having failed, Morro faced a possible trip to Riverside county jail this time.

The Village is Richer Because She Lived Here

A chapter in the history of Palm Springs was closed this week to the sorrow of hundreds of Villagers and winter residents and people throughout the nation.

With the passing of Mrs. Nellie Coffman "Mother of the Village" a notable career came to an end, a career which in its span here, was of highest importance to Palm Springs.

For it was Mrs. Coffman's indomitable spirit, her unflinching courage and her persevering faith in this community that started it along the path to fame as a winter resort and a place for healthful relaxation.

The throng which crowded the Palm Springs cemetery Tuesday to pay homage to her memory was testimony to the esteem in which she was held and to the wide circle of her friends and those whom she had befriended.

Churches, schools, charities, all benefited as result of her interest and activities. The annual Christmas party here will keep her memory fresh for hundreds. There is hardly a spot in town that does not bear mute witness to her inspiration and influence.

So, while Mrs. Coffman has passed on, the Village will never forget her. Throughout her active years here she was a vital part of it and her memory will remain in the many good things we have which she inaugurated and sponsored.

Palm Springs is extremely fortunate that she chose this desert spot for her home 42 years ago.

A Tribute to Mrs. Nellie Coffman

By JOHN ROBERTSON MACARTNEY
Former Pastor, Community Church

The passing of Mrs. Nellie Coffman has brought sorrow to all of our hearts, for she was highly esteemed and greatly beloved.

To thousands all over the land the broadcast news has awakened fond memories and recalled happy associations with this remarkable personality.

The roster of those who have been guests of Mrs. Coffman at the Desert Inn is lengthy and notable.

She had them all tucked away in the files of her astonishing memory, and her conversation was vivid with incidents and anecdotes gleaned over more than half a century of contacts and associations with most of the celebrated men and women of her era.

Just where and how she accumulated so much of human interest and could bring it forth seemingly spontaneously and without effort, often amazed me. Her sense of humor was most refreshing. She saw straight to the heart of every situation.

Her interest in every good cause and effort for uplift in Palm Springs was an inspiration to other civic workers, whether it be in church circles, welfare of the local Indians by whom she was revered, Red Cross and Community Chest campaigns, or physical improvements in the Village.

Tireless in her building of the public schools, the children can never forget that great heart which ceased to beat last Saturday morning, harbored every noble impulse.

The Sunrise service at the cross above the Desert Inn was her origination. The Easter Egg Hunt and breakfast for the little children was hers. It mattered not what church circle it was that needed a place to hold their annual social and money raising affairs, her welcome was generous.

Events connected with the Annual Circus, centered in the Desert Inn grounds.

She clipped the ribbon which opened the Plaza to the public. There were few public events from the very beginning of Palm Springs with which she was not connected.

Coming to Palm Springs some 14 years ago, immediately upon her arrival, and pushing open the door of the manse we had been made and the ice box was well stored from the Desert Inn Larder.

And consistently since then, including a delightful visit within the last fortnight, it was our rare privilege to enjoy the friendship and be the recipients of kindness from the one whose passing from our midst we mourn this day.

Countless numbers rise up this day and thank God for Mrs. Coffman. Her good works are in the records below and in the courts of Heaven above. She needs no eulogy, her life and achievements and character are known and read of all men.

To the bereaved family, which has so rich a treasure in her memory, we one and all extend our regards and sympathy at this time.

May her mantle of ability and integrity rest upon those who this day revere their beloved one, and who will carry forward her good works so nobly begun.

JOHN ROBERTSON

know from experience that many will probably buy property in Palm Springs now or in the future, and each of the 1476 will carry the story of Palm Springs to dozens of friends. Mr. Carl Bolte, the Rotary Presidents' representative from Kansas City, had attended some 16 or 17 conventions this year, and expressed the opinion that this was the most successful Rotary convention he had attended or hoped to attend. All of this was due to the factors mentioned previously, the Chamber of Commerce, local Rotarians and the cooperation from the community. Such favorable publicity will be carried throughout the country and will represent many thousands of dollars of value to our city.

My point is that what was accomplished with Rotary International can be accomplished with many other groups, year after year. But it will take the same work, the same cooperation received in this instance. Such promotional work takes time, but there is no reason why we cannot eventually have such a convention at least once a week during October, November, possibly December, and from Easter to June 1st. The Chamber of Commerce has a well organized, long range Convention program that will bring the desired results if we all give our support. In addition to the dollars and cents which delegates bring to our city at the time of the convention, many will return season after season. It will mean dollars to the hotels, the merchants—it will mean the purchase of property and homes. In short every business in Palm Springs, the butcher, the baker, the barber shop, the merchant, the hotel owner, even the home owner, will benefit.

Newspaper Ads Now Filling Camps

Newspaper advertising has been credited by the Private Camp Directors association of Southern California for the increased enrollment which this group of long-term, boys and girls camps are enjoying this year.

According to Richard W. Elliott of The Desert Sun School Summer Camp, Idyllwild, California, newspaper space has reached the type of family interested in having their youngsters spend four to eight weeks under highly-trained supervision. "We have tried various media," declared Elliott, "but this is the first time in our history that we have found all members pretty well filled up before the season gets under way. The increased interest in private camps this year can be attributed largely to our newspaper advertising which has received the bulk of our appropriation."

The Private Camp Directors association of Southern California is headed by Sophie Cummings Sarkis, 2018 Ridgeview avenue, Los Angeles. It consists of 22 camps, most of them members of the group for five years or more. The group comprises camps selected for their outstanding achievements in the field of camping... leaders in

THE PRIMARY ELECTION

Election post mortems are holding the spotlight here in Los Angeles. No doubt a similar situation exists throughout the entire State of California. Those who voted are openly critical of those who didn't. "Why aren't people on their toes?" they ask. "They don't move a finger to help us elect strong candidates, yet they shout the loudest against the high cost of living, excessive taxation, and Truman extravagance." Words—more true—were never uttered.

THE CONSENSUS is that Governor Earl Warren will conduct a campaign from September 1 to election day in November that will make political history. His brief campaign, prior to June 6, was a "warming-up" period. In the final run-off, he shall see the Governor at his best. No longer will his great strength and ability as a campaigner be held in abeyance. And after the first Tuesday in November, not only the people of California, but also all the people of America will recognize him as the statesman who can—and will—with the help of Congress, solve our many problems.

The race for United States Senator—between Richard Nixon and Helen Douglas will be dramatic and breath-taking, with sufficient comedy relief thrown in to give us plenty of entertainment. Will or will not the Boddy votes go to Mrs. Douglas? There is the question that bedevils many people. The answer to it may be found in the fact that Sheridan Downey, about to retire from the Senate will do everything possible to prevent her from taking over his desk. And since it was he who endorsed Mr. Boddy, it is logical to believe that a very large percentage of the publisher's vote will go to Richard Nixon.

AND NOW THE RACE for Attorney General. One has but to analyze the vote polled by the three candidates—incumbent Fred Howser, Republican Edward Shattuck and Democrat Edmund Brown in order to arrive at the conclusion that Brown holds the chips. A large percentage of the Howser vote—on both tickets—will go to Edmund Brown. This gives him a lead that Mr. Shattuck cannot overcome any more than James Roosevelt can overtake Governor Warren.

The reflection on both tickets of Congressman John Phillips proves that the voters of Riverside, Orange and Imperial counties recognize strength, ability and sound judgment. No man in Washington works harder than Mr. Phillips. Soon Congress will adjourn for several months. I am certain we all wish for Mr. Phillips the most restful vacation a man can possibly enjoy.

I Rise to Remark

By CONGRESSMAN JOHN PHILLIPS

The election is over and your Representative is back in Washington. It still gives me a mild feeling of astonishment to board a plane in Washington after midnight and have lunch in Los Angeles, or to reverse that and take the plane at supper time in California and have lunch in the Capitol restaurant here. These are not the fastest flights; they were the most convenient for me. The planes are getting larger, faster and more comfortable all the time; now there are planes with two decks, and some have sleeping accommodations. We live in a world of increasing speed in the air and increasing confusion on the ground.

Returns from the election are beginning to filter into Washington. It appears that I have received both the Republican and the Democratic nomination for re-election to the Congress. That is a very great honor and I appreciate it tremendously. I thank everyone, from the energetic young men and women who arranged the details, and who drove me and flew me around, to the voters whose X's decided the issue Tuesday, and particularly to the large groups of people who came out to talk with me about conditions in their government and tell me their hopes and fears and their opinions. That is the republic in action, and the evidences of increasing interest are encouraging.

These weekly letters are written in Washington, one week before you read them in the home papers. You should keep in mind that time difference. Sometimes I put items in them, fresh from committee hearings or other meetings, only to see some of the items published in some other column whose writers learned them later but used the wires. Now I am getting the election returns from home; you will have seen them all by the time my letter gets there. It would appear from the first figures that the percentage of vote is slightly higher than the average primary vote, at least more Republican seem to have gone to the polls. The figures at hand show a 50% Democratic vote and a 60% Republican vote. Let's figure for a moment: There are, in round numbers, 17,000 voters in Imperial County, 98,000 in Orange County and 72,000 in Riverside County. Taking the Republicans only and supposing the parties were about equally divided, that means about 30,000 Republicans voted in Orange County and about 22,000 in Riverside County. These are not exact figures.

What I want you to think about is that under a Hitler or a Stalin 97% of the registered voters go to the polls and vote. Instead of 30,000 in Orange County, 47,000 would have voted, if this were Russia, and 34,000 in Riverside County. What about splitting the difference?

Do you know what those additional votes would have done in past elections? Well, if the numbers had been the same in 1948, just those few extra voters, in two counties, would have carried California for the Republican candidates, and in 1916, when we were going into World War I, an additional 10% of the votes would have carried the state for Hughes, and thus the national election.

CANDIDATES FOR OFFICE are often elected, not by the voters who vote, but by the voters who stay home or go fishing on election day. The Orange County Taxpayers Association put out that simple and good statement of the voters responsibility during a campaign and on election day, in response to the usual question, "What can I do?"

Here's a busy businessman. He used to try to keep informed of all the economic factors affecting securities in which he had invested his savings. It was distracting, worrisome... he had to spend valuable time, energy and effort.

One day he mentioned this to an officer at his neighborhood branch of Bank of America. This officer arranged a talk with a Trust Department officer. The trust officer told him about the Bank's INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT SERVICE—how his securities would be managed under the supervision of a Committee consisting of senior officers of Bank of America. This busy businessman was pleased. He has an Investment Management account now with Bank of America... and knows his investments are well and carefully managed.

Carol Jean Burket Bride Of Robert A. Anderson in Pomona College Ceremony

Miss Carol Jean Burket and Robert A. Anderson were united in marriage Sunday, June 11 at 8 p. m. in a ceremony in the chapel at Pomona college by Dr. Meriam Cuninggim before a throng of members of both families and friends.

Auxiliary to Continue Girl Scout Project

During the final business session conducted by Mrs. Charles Henderson as president of American Legion Auxiliary it was agreed that although the budget this year was lower than last for community service, curtailments should not be made at the expense of services to veterans and their families. The project of sending a girl to Girl Scout camp was voted with the recommendation that if possible the girl be from a veteran family. In accepting the check Mrs. Russell Rink, director of camp registration said that she was gratified that the plan was continued and was sure the girl selected would appreciate the assistance given her.

They exchanged marriage vows but a few hours after both had been graduated from the college at Claremont with Bachelor of Arts degrees.

The new Mrs. Anderson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burket of Palm Springs and a graduate of Palm Springs high school in 1946. She was born and reared in the Village prior to entering the college at Claremont. Mr. Anderson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson of Prescott, Arizona.

The bride wore a Maurer original gown of imported chintilly lace and net with a formal train, a lace coronet held by her fingertip veil and she carried white gladiolus and orchids.

Marjanna Carothers, maid of honor was dressed in aqua lace and net and carried apricot gladiolus, Margaret Wooley, Mrs. Burgess Heacock and Mrs. Mel Hill wore similar gowns of apricot lace and net and carried yellow gladiolus. Little Linda Anderson, cousin of the bridegroom and the flower girl, wore yellow net.

Dave Freeman served as best man and Burgess Heacock, Vernon White and Clifford Schwarburg were the ushers.

A reception at Rembrandt hall on the college campus followed the ceremony.

Among the many guests attending the wedding were the bride's grandmothers, Mrs. Mary Burket of Chicago and Mrs. Anna Campbell of Banning; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Campbell and Mrs. James Murray of Oakland; Miss Rose Moore of Claremont; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson of Oro Grande; Judge and Mrs. E. E. Theriault, Mrs. Louise McCann, Mrs. Gladys Denton, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Feekings and children, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Weingarten, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Greeley and daughter Barbara, W. M. Moorhouse, Mrs. Al Bedding and Alexander Hammond, "Becky" and "The Lord's Prayer" at the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will spend their honeymoon in the San Francisco bay area and in other northern California points.

New President Welcomed to Auxiliary Office

Following her installation as president of the Owen Coffman unit of the American Legion Auxiliary, Mrs. Lou Oliverson accepted the good wishes of the local chapter and auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, personally delivered by Mrs. Clarence B. Self, auxiliary president, and Fred Strombom, commander of the VFW chapter.

In a short business session, a special resolution concerning Girls State was presented and approved and will be forwarded to the resolutions committee for consideration at department convention.

Mrs. Oliver announced that as soon as replies were received she would issue a list of her appointments for the ensuing year, ventation.

Palm Desert Sunbeams

By EDITH EDDY WARD

The Palm Desert Volunteer fire department is in the throes of preparation for its second all-Cochella Valley Carnival of Fun to be held at Shadow Mountain Club on Monday, June 26 for the benefit of their building fund.

Those Valley residents and members of the club who were here last summer will remember the success of its first affair. This year it will be even better, because Ole Olsen of Olsen and Johnson fame will be master of ceremonies and is enthusiastically giving his time and effort toward making the all-summer and evening festivities a never-to-be-forgotten event. It will, in other words, be "HELLZAPOPPIN'" right here at Shadow Mountain Club. The public is invited to join in the fun of dancing, swimming, the midway, vaudeville and competitive games for all ages.

The poolside soda fountain and sandwiches will be available and in the evening a Spanish dinner will be served for $1.25. In addition to the riotous fun, a beautiful Hoffman Console Television set worth over $300.00 is being offered as a prize. Since the Rose Bowl Parade was televised so clearly this year at the club, it has been proved that television can be enjoyed in this area. Early morning this past Sunday, Ole Olsen, Don Cameron and other members of the fire department brought the big red fire truck onto the lawn of the club and proceed to take publicity shots to appear in the papers between now and the 26th.

Last Wednesday, the finals of the Coachella Valley Sport League tennis tournament for women and girls' singles and doubles, men's and boys' singles and doubles and mixed doubles, were held on the courts of Shadow Mountain Club with Dr. Ralph E. Pawley of Coachella, Sports League chairman, presenting the trophies. Twin daughters of summer club members Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Cunningham of Indio, Barbara and Jo Ann, received top honors, each girl winning two trophies. Jo Ann defeated Anita Egnew in the women's singles 4-6, 6-2, 6-0 and Barbara defeated Charleen McSwann in the 15-18 singles 6-4, 2-6, 6-0. Both Barbara and Jo Ann won the 15-18 doubles. Reardon Shea Jr., who is seen many times on Shadow Mountain Club courts battling out a tennis match with his father, Col. Reardon Shea of Palm Desert, was the partner of Anita Egnew in the mixed doubles. They defeated Reardon Shea Sr. and Mrs. James Lewis 6-3, 8-6.

Over the weekend, Bob Tracy, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Gougler of Palm Springs, entertained about fifteen of his friends from Claremont, Russell M. Selwyn of Los Angeles and Fred C. Wilson of San Fernando, were the guests of Mrs. Ruth Warburton of Red Roof Ranch. Mr. and Mrs. John Munholland of Palm Springs were out for dinner Saturday night. The Charles L. Millikens of Los Angeles were down to go over the plans of their new Palm Desert home with designer Walter White, Mrs. Rosalie Pione of Los Angeles was also down on Sunday to enjoy the Shadow Mountain Club and a visitor from Fond du Lac, Wisconsin, Mrs. A. B. Bechard (Ben Har Co.) visited the desert with her daughter Miss Terry Bechard and both were much impressed with what the desert had to offer.

Shadow Mountain Club extends congratulations and good wishes to two of its members, Mrs. Ruth Campbell Stokes of Palm Desert and Dr. Victor J. McKee of Indio, who were married last Saturday in Indio at the Church of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, with Father Joseph Mackey officiating at the High Mass following the double ring ceremony. They made a very happy couple and the bride looked lovely in her full-length gown of blue taffeta covered by sheer white organza and a small blue crocheted hat with shoulder-length veil of blue. Mrs. J. Campbell, mother of the bride gave a wedding breakfast for them in the Arabian Room of the Hotel Indio at which fifty guests were present. Dr. and Mrs.

Mrs. Henderson Hosts Luncheon Honoring Aides

The Chi Chi patio was the setting Thursday for a luncheon at which Mrs. Charles Henderson honored those who had served as her board of directors during her year as president of the American Legion Auxiliary. Social chatter was the order of the day and an entertaining feature was hand writing analysis given by Mrs. H. H. Menard. Mrs. Henderson had previously secured specimens of handwriting from each guest thus adding to the thorough surprise of all. Those present all agreed that their year of office had been pleasant and that they were happy to have had the opportunity to contribute to the successful year the organization had enjoyed under the leadership of their hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Reich of the Village Market are at Lake Tahoe where they will spend a two-week vacation.

McKee are now off on a six to eight week honeymoon tour which will take them to San Francisco, Chicago, New York, Quebec, Montreal, and back through Canada.

A bit of excitement fluttered through those who were at Shadow Mountain Club on Tuesday, especially the children, when a Ryan Navion circled over the club and made a perfect three-point landing nearby. The purpose of its visit was to have publicity shots with Shadow Mountain Club as a background for a television show that Ryan Aeronautics is giving. Frances L. Kohl, art and production editor for the "Ryan Reporter" and Robert F. Smith, Navion news writer were along with "Doc" Sloan as pilot. The children were particularly excited and flocked to the Club entrance and parking area to watch Thorne Holmes, Club manager, drive his green convertible, waving a towel out of the window, over the best areas for a landing, with this snappy little plane following above and finally landing, wheeling around and coming to rest behind the club on the rodeo area. The plane was such a beauty, that youngster Denny Kincaid was inspired to make a sketch of the plane to present to his father, Eugene Kincaid of Palm Village. (It was very good, too!)

Villagers in East For Daughter's Wedding Today

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur T. Barrie of Rancho Trailer park are now at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York to attend the wedding in that city today of their daughter, Lt. Elynn Barrie, United States Army Nursing Corps, and Chief Petty Officer Gene Thacher.

Following the ceremony they will leave New York for Manitowish, Wis., where they will stay for three months before returning to the Village in the fall.

Daughter is Born To Valeur Family

The Claude Valeur family now totals four, mother, father, two-and-one-half-year-old George and that new baby girl born at the Palm Springs Community hospital last Wednesday at 8:42 a. m.

The new addition to the Valeur family has been named Louise Lynn. When she gave with her first cry in this world, the proud father said Louise weighed an "even nine pounds and was 21 inches long."

California Shriners To Rally on Desert

Shriners from all over the state will concentrate on the desert area next November when the Temple of the Shrine holds a ceremonial at the Fairgrounds at Indio, it was indicated today.

The Desert Sun—5 Palm Springs, Fri., June 16, 1950

Supervisors Monday granted the Temple permission to use the grounds. Wallace Rouse, who made the request, said more than 5000 Shriners are expected.

Fresh as a Daisy

If Old Sol has a frustrated look, you can hardly blame him. Outdoors he may be kicking up temperatures to above the 100 degree mark, but inside this office he doesn't mean a thing. Modern air conditioning has solved the problem of the sun's heat rays, and the stenographer coolly types away... fresh as a daisy! Electrically-controlled air conditioning systems for offices, stores, and homes have leveled out the seasons. They maintain comfortable, even interior temperatures in summer or winter. Air conditioning is one more example of the contributions electricity has made to better living in the United States.

ANCIENT PRINTING PRESS ROUNDING OUT CENTURY AT THOUSAND PALMS

Harry Oliver of Thousand Palms has added a new piece of equipment to his store of relics at Fort Oliver—a Washington hand press, vintage of 1870, replete with ornamental brass fittings and all shined up like new.

It was moved to Fort Oliver from San Bernardino where it was first noticed by Oliver and started him on a campaign of cajoling which finally won the press away from the San Bernardino Sun, its owner.

MOST PEOPLE around here know Oliver's cajoling power. But Burr Belten, San Bernardino Sun editor, can tell you more. Here's what he had to say about that old press which will probably round out a full century in the printing business on the desert.

Oliver who has collected antique type from the worn fonts of nearly every ghost town print shop from Tombstone to Calico and Skidoo contends his "new press" figured prominently in the pioneer publishing ventures of both Calico and Needles through for the last 20 years it has stood collecting dust as an unused standby proof press of the Inland Engraving & Colorotype Co. in that firm's former plant at Rialto avenue and F streets, San Bernardino.

THE DESERT RAT Scrap Book publisher took delivery yesterday loading the 700-pound press on the tail gate of his 1928 Ford station wagon after giving the rear tires an extra inflation of San Bernardino air. The old press has a full speed capacity of something like 100 copies (one side at a time) an hour. Oliver prints some 10,000 copies of his "scrap book" each edition but consoles himself that he publishes only four times a year.

The press was delivered to Oliver under perpetual loan by the Inland Printing & Engraving Co. with John B. Meek, engraving division manager, superintending the transaction, one which resulted from negotiations begun in 1946.

It was in 1946 that Oliver, a tireless desert publicist, started his Desert Rat Scrap Book which he contends is the world's only five-page newspaper. Oliver saw the old press, recognized it as an early model and vowed that the hoary old bit of machinery would help make his desert yarns sound more truthful.

IN ABOUT A YEAR, four Desert Rat editions later, Oliver was back with his pockets bulging with an assortment of old type faces he had collected here and there over the desert and insisted his museum of desert lore, known as Fort Oliver, would not be complete until he had a press to match his type in age.

The Thousand Palms publisher, who prides himself in his original versions of desert history, also had a pedigree worked out. It was a good one, for remember Harry Oliver is the man who, by planting a dozen antiquated wooden legs in Borrego desert caves, caused simultaneous "discovery" of the fabled Peg Leg mine by that many treasure hunters on a single weekend.

According to Oliver the old press was hauled into Calico in 1885 or 1886 where it was used to turn out that boom camp's newspaper, the "Calico Print."

The press was saved in the Calico fire of 1887, its wooden handle and leather straps being the only damage. Repaired it printed a post-fire extra on paper scraps and torn bed sheets. "Just think, said Oliver, still trying to get the press, "this old type and that press went through the Calico fire together. They belong together now."

MONTHS LATER Oliver returned to San Bernardino with more "press pedigree." It seems that when Calico mines were putting out over $600,000 in silver bullion yearly the "Calico Print" boomed too and needed faster equipment. Here enters F. H. Harber of Needles who had an idea of printing a paper in the little village which boasted an Atlantic & Pacific railroad roundhouse, a cable ferry across the Colorado and steamboat service to Yuma. Harber printed his first issue of "Our Bazaar" in October 1888, sold out to a man named Booth who changed the paper's name to "Booth's Bazaar" and then in 1891 to "The Needles Eye." Oliver avers that those six Es in the Eye's masthead just about wore out the fonts of Booth's type forcing some unique capitalization whenever a word started with "E."

Those were the days of rough rail competition, Editor Booth ran short of ink. His supply had been shipped by Southern Pacific and was set off at Yuma for steamboat delivery rather than going via Atlantic & Pacific to Needles. Booth was resourceful. He printed a few copies with shoe blacking, gave one each to Capt. Isaac Polhemus of the steamer Gila and to Capt. Lamar of the steamer Aztec. It was all that was needed for a steamboat race. The river was "up" and the Gila made the Yuma trip in the record time of five hours and brought back Booth's ink.

OLIVER'S SHOE blacking ink story clinched the deal. It was sealed there that the newspaper advertising has been credited by the Private Camp Directors association of Southern California for the increased enrollment which this group of long-term, boys and girls camps are enjoying this year.

According to Richard W. Elliott of The Desert Sun School Summer Camp, Idyllwild, California, newspaper space has reached the type of family interested in having their youngsters spend four to eight weeks under highly-trained supervision.

"We have tried various media," declared Elliott, "but this is the first time in our history that we have found all members pretty well filled up before the season gets under way. The increased interest in private camps this year can be attributed largely to our newspaper advertising which has received the bulk of our appropriation."

The Private Camp Directors association of Southern California is headed by Sophie Cummings Sarkis, 2018 Ridgeway avenue, Los Angeles. It consists of 22 camps, most of them members of the group for five years or more. The group comprises camps selected for their outstanding achievements in the field of camping... leaders in

THIS IS A WEEK of days... Last Wednesday was flag day, Sunday is FATHER'S DAY, (please put that all in caps, Mr. Operator, give the old man one break a year, anyway) and next Wednesday is the first day of summer... Another reason I'd like to have FATHER'S DAY in capitals is to be sure that for once, he has the capital... And in re Flag Day, the way the men wear their shirts here, every day is flag day... I still wish men's apparel manufacturers would standardize their product... Either all snaps or all buttons... Then a man wouldn't have to worry about when to fumble and when to snap... Nothing happens much if you fumble when you should snap but if you snap when you should fumble... that's disaster.

SOME OF THOSE new street lights just shine up and some up and down... I don't like the lights that just go up. We're not walking on the tree tops although some of us do get high at times... And neither are the jay walkers doing a tight rope act on those power and phone cables which interlace the palms... Lights up there are no good... We should have them where they light up the street so we, when driving, can dodge the jaywalking pedestrians and when jaywalking, the drivers can dodge us... But, up or down or sideways, it'll be nice when we get them.

MUSEUM PIECE—That is, the item on the truck is for the museum. On the right, that's Harry Oliver accepting a "perpetual loan" of a Washington hand press, vintage of 1870, from Johnny Meek of the Inland Printing and Engraving company, and San Bernardino Sun, of San Bernardino. The press has been moved to Fort Oliver at Thousand Palms where Oliver says it will round out its century of keeping the public informed.

Rev. Blackstone Honors Fathers

Sunday school and morning worship service will be continued throughout the summer months at the regular time. Sunday school commences at 9:45 a. m. with classes provided for groups of all ages.

At the morning worship service, 11:00 o'clock, Rev. James H. Blackstone Jr. will preach on the text, "Quit you like men, be strong."

As this is Father's Day the message will be appropriate to that theme and will be addressed particularly to the men.

Times Get Tougher In Police Court

Tussles with alcoholic beverages are having a more serious aftermath these days.

Three persons found guilty of foregoing fines and assessing jail sentences for drunk cases. Joe Rios was sentenced to 30 days in county jail, Paulino Carrillo must serve ten days and an Indian woman whose name was withheld, 30 days.

Amend Dance Law

County dance law was amended this week to put the handling of permits in the hands of the county clerk's office. He will issue permits to organizations already holding dance licenses. Until now such permits were issued by supervisors.

THANKS FRIENDS

I wish to express deep appreciation to my friends and the voters of Palm Springs for their splendid support in electing me to the office of Superintendent of Schools for Riverside County.

Alibis to be Topic Of Rev. Hogarth

Two services will be held next Sunday in the Episcopal church, St. Paul's in the Desert at 8 and 11 a. m., the Rev. Robert M. Hogarth will preach on "Our Un-Christian Alibis for Neglect of Holy Baptism was administered last Sunday to the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard A. Rogers. The family hails from St. Anne's parish in Chicago and will make their home in Tahquitz River Estates next fall.

Lois Chartrand Guest Sunday at Church Program

Lois Chartrand, leading lady in the recently released motion picture film "Decision" will be present at the Community church of Palm Springs in person on this Sunday night when the film will be shown at 7:30 p.m. The story of the picture is taken from real life experiences of young people, of whom Miss Chartrand is one, who came to discover a reality in life at Forest Home and made the great decision, the greatest decision of life, in that beautiful mountain retreat.

"The film is in great demand throughout southern California and we are very fortunate to have Miss Chartrand present for this showing in Palm Springs," said the Rev. James H. Blackstone, pastor. "An informal period of fellowship with light refreshments will be held immediately after the picture is shown and those present will have an opportunity to meet this young star in person and to visit with her. This picture is something you cannot well afford to miss. We urge everyone to come and enjoy this evening in the church commencing at 7:30 o'clock."

TAX GROUP ORGANIZED

wife knows that her furniture and kitchen equipment is constantly wearing out and it takes money to replace it. With a city, when the budget does not include it, extra taxes are the only way to get that money. Heaven help us when things commence to fall apart! Even now there is a big threat of this. Let me quote from the proposed budget for 1950-51 under the caption entitled "ITEMS NOT INCLUDED IN BUDGET." "The following equipment is not included in the budget because there are not available funds in the general fund, but nevertheless it must be purchased in the near future if we are to carry out our responsibilities in an efficient manner." Then follows a list of $47,500.00 worth of worn out and obsolete equipment, including police radios, drag-line, street sweeper, etc., that must be replaced or purchased. It interested me to know that a drag-line is necessary for the proper disposal of our garbage at the city dump, and that our garbage now is not being adequately covered. Again quoting from the proposed budget for the coming year, "The state department of public health made a survey of the fly problem in Palm Springs. The report indicates that our dump is the largest single offender."

If there isn't enough money for these things essential to good health conditions here, where is the money coming from for any additional expenditures for the Polo Grounds?

I DO NOT INTEND to discredit the value of the Polo Grounds, in spite of the fact that from my own personal knowledge of construction costs, I feel that

Building Activity Maintains Steady Pace in Village

Building operations in Palm Springs for the first half of June continued active with business alterations, new homes, alterations at apartments and hotels and pools featuring the permits issued.

Permits this week were issued to W. H. Braly, 1150 Mesquite, for a pool, $4000 and to Don Hartman, 1151 San Lorenzo, for a pool, $4000. Paddock Pools has both contracts. C. J. Burkett, 1550 North Palm Canyon was issued a permit for a store building to cost $4000; Pepper Tree Inn, alterations, R. C. Vogel, contractor, $5150 and Ramon Trailer Park, alterations, O. R. Andrews, contractor, $2500.

Permits up to last Saturday included one for $16,350 issued to Earl Strebe for alterations to his building there for an office to house the Desert Bank branch. The location is at 444 North Palm Canyon drive and H. L. Hansen is the contractor.

Other permits listed were to C. J. Licata, 2135 North Palm Canyon drive, apartment alterations, $100; Cody and Rogers, 1757 California road, apartments, $19,000; Desert Inn Coffee Shop, 153 North Palm Canyon, alterations and Desert Inn hotel, 153 North Palm Canyon, pool house, Charles Chamberlain, contractor for both, $4000 and $4300; Lillian Hathaway, Via Altiora, pool, Reg Jones, contractor, $3000; E. Zorutti, contractor, garage, $1200; Orbach Pitts, 240 East Ramon, I. Grude, contractor, alterations, $1,000.

Jimmy Stewart Stars in Film At the Village

Hollywood's "ace reporter" is on the job again. He is James Stewart, who enacts an adventurous newswoman on the screen for the fifth time in the new M. M. drama, "Malaya," in which he co-stars with Spencer Tracy and the glamorous Italian actress, Valentina Cortese.

Stewart played a reporter in his very first motion picture, "Murder Man," filmed in 1935, and incidentally, his teammate in that picture was also Spencer Tracy. Subsequently Stewart won an academy award as a reporter in "The Philadelphia Story," and also went out for scoops in "Next Time We Love" and "Call Northside 777."

In "Malaya" he is seen as John Rover, a correspondent who is sent to the United States shortly after the outbreak of the war, following three years in the far east.

"Malaya" opens today for a two day run at the Village Palm Springs Theatre.

MRS. NELLIE COFFMAN

Mrs. Coffman attended her as a physician, she has inspired me and others with her unselfish spirit.

"I knew her," continued the doctor, "as the possessor of a great soul and possessed of an unflinching desire to help others."

REV. WEATHERAL seemed inspired in the delivery of his tribute to the civic worker in more than 41 years of residence in Palm Springs. He recited the many things that she accomplished and the civic good she led in performing.

Her race and creed was repudiated in the throng of those who knew Mrs. Coffman during her lifetime and came to do homage at her bier. Many traveled great distances to pay silent tribute.

Master Sergeant Segundo Rigonan, who was Mrs. Coffman's personal attendant until he joined the army during World War II, traveled from Fort Ord to be at the funeral and wept like a child beside her coffin.

THE SUDDEN and unexpected death of Mrs. Coffman, at approximately 4:30 a. m. Saturday in her Banning home shocked her many friends here and throughout the nation. Telegrams of condolence by the hundreds poured into the local Western Union office from every state in the union following the report of her death carried by press wires all over the country.

According to her sons, George Roberson and Earl Coffman Mrs. Coffman had awakened at 4 a. m. in the grip of a heart attack. She telephoned a physician living near her home in Banning. When he arrived he found her propped up in bed and gasping for breath. Within thirty minutes she died.

Forest Areas Thrown Open

More area in San Bernardino National forest within county boundaries will be open to the public the year around hereafter.

Decision of the U. S. Forestry service that the public could use the areas, previously closed in dry weather, without materially increasing the fire hazard, prompted supervisors to adopt an ordinance Monday opening 26,000 acres of forest land all year.

The areas formerly had been closed from July to December because of the fire danger.

Upsets Mark Week's Play In Baseball

By DICK MCGONAGLE

Two upsets marked this week's play in the city softball league, both occurring at Desert Hot Springs. By far the most startling was the form reversal of the Mexican Colony. After winning their opening games 20-3 and 18-3 the Mexicans were beaten by a usually light-hitting Desert Hot Springs club, 5-4, and were held to two hits. The second surprise came the following evening when these same Hot Springs were dumped by a scrappy Youth Center 10-7.

Sitting on top of the heap with the only unblemished record are the Merchants. In their three games they have shown a capable, well-balanced team, strong in pitching and hitting, but as their 10-9 win from the Youth Center shows, they are definitely not standouts. Judging from the first ten days action whenever two of the top five teams in the standings are pitted together, anybody's ball game, and with a slight improvement any one of the other teams could pull a surprise.

The standings, including Wednesday, June 14:

	W	L	Pct	GBL
Merchants	3	0	1.000	1
DHS	2	1	.667	1
Legion 519	2	1	.667	1
Mexican Colony	2	1	.667	1
Youth Center	2	1	.667	1
Legion 615	1	2	.333	2
Jr. Chamber	0	3	.000	3
Cathedral City	0	3	.000	3

DAVIS POST WINS

F. K. Jessie and Otis Pellum led the attack as the Will Davis American Legion Post swamped Cathedral City 13-3 Wednesday night at the Polo Grounds. Jessie blasted out a four-bagger and a triple, hitting like he did two seasons ago, when he was one of the home run leaders. Pellum singled three times. Alexander limited Cathedral to five hits in a well-pitched game.

Cathedral City	000 000 0	3 5 6
Legion 615	232 240 x	13 11 2
Buchanan and McMann	Gonzales, Alexander and Pellum

DHS TOPS COLONY

Desert Hot Springs edged the Mexican Colony, 5-4, to record the first major upset of the season Tuesday night in Hot Springs. The Mexicans tagged pitcher Botts for all of their runs in the first two innings, but went hitless after the third frame. Botts gave up only two hits. Home runs by Frank Gaultello and George Ellis provided the punch for the Fireballs.

MERCHANTS WIN

Staving off a belated rally the Merchants coasted to an 8-4 win over the Owen Coffman American Legion Post Tuesday night.

Revival of the Charleston dance craze now sweeping across the country has Villagers swinging a "mean leg and hip" along with others doing the dance, thanks to Irwin Schuman owner of the Chi Chi and Roy Randolph dance master teaching that dance plus the samba, rumba and square and round dances Monday and Wednesday nights.

These instructions which are bined with some timely hitting by the Merchants, led to his downfall. After scoring once in the opening frame the Merchants tallied three more in the second, two of these coming in on a base-line double by Joe Sanderfer. Winning pitcher Bill Tichenor, making his first start this season, was also plagued with control trouble, walking seven. He had a no-hitter for five innings, however.

JAYCEES TUMBLE

Scoring six runs in a wild fifth inning, the Youth Center downed the Junior Chamber of Commerce 10-7 Monday night. The Jaycees built up a 7-1 lead in the first four innings only to see it crumble. For the losers Ted McKinney had three hits and a walk in four tries.

COFFMAN POST WINS

Steve Talavera's effective rise ball fooled enough Cathedral batters to give the Owen Coffman American Legion Post a 14-4 win Friday night.

COLONY ROMPS

The Mexican Colony romped over the Will Davis American Legion Post at will Friday night at Desert Hot Springs, 20-3. The Colony scored 14 runs in the first three frames.

GO EXTRA INNINGS

Overcoming an 8-0 lead the Merchants battled their way to an extra inning 10-9 win over a stubborn Youth Center nine Thursday night. Frank Devers' farewell performance was truly brilliant. Relieving Al Crossley after three innings he allowed only one unearned run in the next five frames striking out the side in the eighth.

DHS WINS ANOTHER

Desert Hot Springs trimmed the Junior Chamber of Commerce 6-1 Thursday night in that city. Pitcher Botts tossed a three-hitter at the visitors.

Conservationists Ask County Aid

County conservation commission asked supervisors this week to authorize the expenditure of $2500 to buy quail guzzlers for installation throughout the county beginning July 1. These guzzlers are drinking places in dry spots.

The commission also asked that $2500 be spent to improve streams for game fishing.

Both requests were taken under consideration.

Water Safety Campaign Begun

Ben Carpenter, director of safety service for Riverside county Chapter of the American Red Cross, is scheduling the summer "Learn to Swim" campaign conducted each year in many communities throughout the county.

The classes are conducted for the benefit of non-swimmers and there is no charge for the services of the Red Cross expert.

On Tuesday, June 20, Carpenter will be at the Hemet pool, starting at 9:00 A. M. He will remain there through Friday of that week, instructing non-swimmers five years of age and older.

Following Hemet, he will spend one week in Coachella, Blythe, and Elsinore, although the dates have only been tentatively set.

Communities interested in having this Red Cross instruction are invited by Carpenter to contact the Red Cross Chapter headquarters in Riverside for a date.

Two Clubs Still Unbeaten in Play In Boys' League

By DICK MCGONAGLE

Frank Partridge, Boys' club director, said yesterday late that the Villagers, Boys' League ball team, will hereafter be known as the Lions Cubs. They are now tied with Pete's Pioneers for first place and clash tonight at 6:30 on the new Polo Grounds diamond in a decisive game.

The Villagers came to life in the final inning to score five runs, beating Desert Hot Springs 5-1 in a Boys' League game Wednesday evening. Johnny Bunton, the winning pitcher, gave up just two hits, and the one run was unearned.

PIONEERS WIN

Pete's Pioneers saved their unbeaten record with a 7-4 win over the Del Tahquitz Indians Monday night. Both pitchers allowed three hits, but the Indians' five errors made the difference.

Rainiers Hottest LuCb in League

The up-and-coming Palm Springs Rainiers.

That's what they are calling them now on Palm Canyon drive. Following a dragging start, the Suds have been a ball of fire in the Coast League the past few weeks, winning six straight series and standing one and one in their current series with the Angels in Los Angeles. The Rainiers trained here this Spring and will be back next Spring.

Junior Rifle Club Being Organized By Local Police

How to handle a rifle safely and become proficient in its use will be taught Village youngsters between the age of 10 and 16, according to Captain Orest Johnson, acting chief of police. Organization of the Palm Springs Junior Rifle club, which functioned for the first time last summer, will be under the guidance of Police Officer W. L. Jessup.

JESSUP, FORMERLY a member of the U. S. Championship U. S. Marine Corps Rifle team, will instruct members of the club the right way in which to handle a rifle. "Boys between the ages of 10 and 16 are eligible to join the club," Jessup said, "and the first meeting of prospective members of the organization will take place at the Youth Center Tuesday at 9 a. m."

THE BOYS will be transported from the Youth Center to the police target range and "those
